I wish there was a bit more feedback on the grading for discussion posts. Maybe during midterms there could be some feedback to let us know how we're doing on that assignment thus far.

I appreciated the open discussion format of the class. I feel like it helped me better understand the topics we were going over, but it also kept me engaged. I typically don't enjoy this type of class (politics), but the structure of the course made it really interesting to me, and I enjoyed being in class.

Weekly discussion post is a good way to get my engagement and give a semi-participation based grade boost

I enjoyed that the class was focused around student debates. We would talk about topics in smaller groups and then all discuss/debate as a class.

I like how the class is set up in class discussions can sometimes feel like unhelpful, i wish he would play devils advocate more and force students to think critically about their opinions
